

1st Annual Hi-Line Indian Education for All Conference

Havre, MT
August 3 & 4, 2006

---

Indigenous Visions & Perspectives

This conference will begin and end with opportunities for educators to gain a first hand appreciation and understanding of the of the historical, cultural, and contemporary perspectives with the Hi-Line Indian tribes through the voices of American Indian people.

---

Conference Highlights

Thursday Pre-Conference Session: Cultural Diversity Training by Ellen Swaney, Director American Indian/Minority OCHE

Thursday evening: Dinner with Keynote Speaker: Dr. Patrick Weasel Head, University of Montana, and other Cultural Activities

Friday: Educational presentations sponsored by Blackfeet Community College, Fort Belknap Community College, and Stone Child College and their respective Tribal History Projects as they address critical "talking points" distinct to their experiences as participants learn first hand about each tribe from the tribal perspective.

Special Showcase of Rocky Boy Public Schools Ready-To-Go Grant Project

---

Registration Information

Space is limited, register early.

Go to www.havre.k12.mt.us/IVPConference/ for a printable registration form or to register on-line.
For more information, contact Peggy Heil at 265-4356 ext. 325 or Dennis Parman at 265-4356, ext. 329

---

A block of rooms have been reserved until July 3, 2006 at the Great Northern Inn.
Call 1-888-530-4100 and ask for HPS Indian Education Conference.

---

Presented by
Havre Public Schools and MSU-N Education Department
Funded by the Havre Public Schools Ready-To-Go Grant

Don't forget to stay for the Rocky Boy Pow Wow Saturday, August 5th.

